

PAC Fob with QR Code - black, no clip, qty 10

The PAC fob is equipped with a unique QR code that enables quick and secure registration of user credentials. By scanning the QR code using Housing Central software, system administrators can seamlessly import the fob's encrypted credential data, eliminating the need for manual input and reducing the risk of errors. This streamlined process accelerates the on-boarding of new users and simplifies credential management, particularly in large-scale housing environments where operational efficiency is critical.
